Helena ALC Visits Job Service

Students recently visited the Helena Job Service to learn about the many resources they offer. During the visit, students used resumes they had developed in class to register for job-seeker accounts. Workforce Consultants guided students through the registration process and helped students search for jobs. Students learned that the staff of the Helena Job Service can also provide assistance with application materials, interview skills, and skills testing.

Connecting students with community resources is an integral part of helping them to achieve their career goals.

Students tour the Job Service with Workforce Consultant Francis Stephenson.

From Helena ALC to the Capital

One of Helena ALC's former students, Brook, recently attended a meeting with Governor, Steve Bullock, as part of his fraternity's community service. Brook has participated in many of these community service activities and. In preparation for this meeting, Brook practiced for the last couple of weeks with presenting the issue of higher education to the legislature and discussing the im-
