

WHERE DO I GO?

Should I be at Urgent Care?

- Sprains/broken bones
- Coughs, colds, flu
- Animal/bug bites
- Rash
- Mild asthma
- Urinary tract infection
- Eye, ear, skin infection
- Back pain
- Minor burns or injuries
- Sports physical
- Dental pain
- Suture removal

Non-life threatening condition, but need to see a doctor now

Or the Emergency Department?

- Signs of a stroke
- Chest Pain, heart attack
- Sudden allergic reaction
- Fainting
- Abdominal Pain
- Difficulty breathing
- Head injury
- Uncontrolled bleeding
- Severe vomiting or passing blood
- Blurred or loss of vision
- Poisoning or possible overdose

Care is needed now or person could die

St. Peter's Health
URGENT CARE